GAE Committee Public Hearing

To the GAE Committee Members:

My name is Trevor Hernandez. I grew up in Bridgeport and live in New Haven. Getting money out of politics would allow middle and working class people to have influence over their own government. Right now, campaign financing has made it nearly impossible for our voices to be represented because of big monied donors' influence on many politicians. If the people at the bottom have no say, how can we make this country a better place? I urge you to pass SJ 33 and restore real representation to our federal government.
